Photo: The image shows a book titled 'GLUP 3: Règles de lecture' by OrthoMalin. The book cover is colorful and features the title in large, bold letters. The book is part of a series of materials for learning to read, specifically focusing on complex sounds like 'c', 'g', and 's'. The book is shown next to a set of dominoes, which are also part of the learning materials. The dominoes are arranged in a row, and the book is placed on top of them. The background is a plain white surface.
